Please keep in mind that there might be more than one application for a cat. Purrmaid reserves the right to select the best applicant for each cat. We reserve the right to decline an application based on the best interest of the cat. The applicant understands that any false, incomplete, or misleading statements on this application is grounds for denial of the application and/or immediate return of the cat to Purrmaid.

You will be asked to review and sign a legally binding Adoption Contract at the time of discharge. Purrmaid reserves the right to refuse service to anyone and may deny adoptions at their discretion. Many of the cats at the café have experienced physical and/or psychological trauma coming from the streets, from shelters, or from having been abandoned by previous owners. Because of this, Purrmaid feels it is imperative that our cats be adopted into homes that offer health, happiness, safety, longevity, stability, and permanence.

If you are denied adoption of a cat, Purrmaid asks that you not feel offended, but realize that Purrmaid and you do not share the same philosophies regarding pet ownership.

You understand that this cat adoption is “as is.” Although we endeavor to assure the cat’s current health as good and will inform you of any known health or behavioral issues, we cannot guarantee what issues may arise nor what potential health problems may occur.

If for any reason this cat does not work out in your home, you are obligated to return the cat to Purrmaid Café and Adoption Center. Your adoption fee ($150.00) will not be refunded.

By signing below, you are agreeing to the terms and conditions of this application and that all of the information you have provided is correct to the best of your knowledge. You understand that any false information may void this application.
